Educational Background and Business Experience

Ian A. Hamre, 30 years old, is a Private Wealth Advisor for Harrison & Company Wealth Management, LLC. Mr. Hamre was born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas. After graduating from Virginia Tech, he married his wife Cass and they moved to Rocky Mount, Virginia. He worked at Carter Bank & Trust for three and a half years before being hired by Harrison & Company in 2014. Ian and Cass now have two children, Emmet and Hallie, and reside at their home in Hardy, Virginia.

Mr. Hamre received a B.S. in Finance and a minor in International Business from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation, which took him close to four years to achieve. The CFA Credential is widely regarded as the preeminent designation in the global financial industry based on its rigorous focus on portfolio management, financial analysis and ethical & professional standards. In the past year, he also completed the Certified Wealth Strategist (CWS) Program with Cannon Financial. The CWS program builds on 13 wealth management topics and critical client interaction skills.

Prior to Harrison & Company, Ian worked at the corporate headquarters for Carter Bank & Trust as a Credit Analyst dealing primarily in commercial and municipal lending. He originated commercial and municipal loans, coordinated the closing of loans, and enhanced the due diligence process for credit qualification and review.
